

Anne-Marie Landtblom, born 1953, professor in neurology at Uppsala University, Sweden, senior consultant at Akademiska sjukhuset, with an expertise in MS, epilepsy and sleep disorders. Dissertation in 1996 on MS epidemiology and imaging. Scientifically active on the fields of imaging in MS, epidemiology, risk factors esp. environmental and genetics. Published more than 60 scientific articles on MS. Participates in the EnviMS group, multinational case control study of environmental risk factors in MS. Her research group investigates presently phenotypic characteristics related to MRI and genetics.