

Laura Negrotto received her M.D. degree with honors in the University of Buenos Aires in 2008. She completed her neurology residency in FLENI (Buenos Aires, Argentina) between the years 2008-2012. She then continued her training in Neuroimmunology as a Fellow in the Center of Multiple Sclerosis of Catalonia (Cemcat, Vall d'Hebron University Hospital) in Barcelona, directed by Dr. Xavier Montalban, between 2013 and 2015. She also received her Master in Neuroimmunology degree in the year 2015 in the Autonomous University of Barcelona (UAB).

Currently she is part of the department of Neuroimmunology and Demyelinating Diseases of FLENI, directed by Dr. Jorge Correale, where she develops clinical and research activities. She is author of several papers in international peer reviewed journals.