

CV Prof. Dr. Martin Stangel

General information

Date of birth: February 12, 1964
Position: Full Professor (W3)

Academic education and degrees

Since 2011 Full professor for Clinical Neuroimmunology and Neurochemistry, Hannover Medical School
2007 Associate Professor, Hannover Medical School
2002 Habilitation, Free University Berlin
2001 Board certification Neurology
1992 MD thesis (doctoral dissertation), Georg August University, Göttingen, Germany
1992 Medical board exam
1989-1990 MD studies, University of California San Diego and Salk Institute, U.S.A.
1989 Bachelor of Medical Sciences, University of Melbourne, Australia
1984-1992 Medical school, Georg August University, Göttingen, Germany

Academic and research appointments

Since Oct 2015 Acting head of Department of Neurology, Hannover Medical School
2011 – present Head Department of Clinical Neuroimmunology and Neurochemistry, MHH
2005 – 2015 Vice chairman, Department of Neurology, Hannover Medical School (MHH)
2002-2005 Attending (Oberarzt), Department of Neurology, Hannover Medical School
1999-2002 Resident in Neurology and Psychiatry, University Hospital Benjamin Franklin
1997-1999 Research Fellow, MRC Center for Brain Repair, University of Cambridge, UK
1994-1997 Resident in Neurology, University Hospital Benjamin Franklin, Berlin
1992-1994 Internship in Neurology, University of Würzburg